

Ayan Rubin

Ayan Rubin is Vice President of DRW Consultants, LLC, an organization which helps non-profits raise private sector dollars for public good. Prior to joining DRW, Mrs. Rubin spent more than twenty years as the Coordinator of Educational Services for Louisiana Public Broadcasting, a statewide public television network, where she was responsible for managing the development and production of a wide variety of interactive multimedia and distance learning programs and award-winning video productions. She also served as the Director of Development for the Academic Distinction Fund, where she coordinated multiple grant programs designed to improve academic achievement in public schools and served as that organization's primary grant writer. Long a civic activist, Mrs. Rubin has served on numerous local, regional and national advisory boards throughout her career, including, but not limited to, the advisory boards of such diverse organizations as the LSU Press, the Louisiana Center for Law and Civic Education, the Louisiana Assistive Technology Network, the Louisiana Alliance for Arts in Education, the Louisiana Council on Economic Education, the National Teacher Training Institute for Math, Science and Technology, and the Smith College Alumnae Association.
